In Search of the Precious Metal—Winton County, Wash., Said by Returned Prospectors to Contain an Unlimited Amount of Auriferous Quartz.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 27.—The first authentic news concerning Washington's new Eldorado, near Mount Baker, and how to get there is brought to Seattle by W. W. Sapors, president of the Aurora and Regency, who, with Frank Upton and Dan Wagner, explored a number of Daws' claims, what to the date of the latest excitement last Saturday.

According to Mr. Sapors, the route is passable and not very difficult until within five miles of the find. The last six miles, however, present obstacles that would forever discourage any one not an experienced prospector and mountaineer.

"There is in Mount Baker and its surroundings enough gold," says Mr. Sapors, "to keep prospectors busy for the next ten years. In samples of ore that were brought back by the Aurora and Regency, who, with Frank Upton and Dan Wagner, explored a number of Daws' claims, what to the date of the latest excitement last Saturday."

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1897.

EX-GOVERNOR JOHN YOUNG Brown thinks "Dick" Tate is alive.

GENERAL NEAL DOW, the veteran Prohibitionist, was yesterday reported at the point of death at his home in Portland, Me.

THE Mayfield Mirror has issued a handsome "harvest and centennial edition" that points to prosperous conditions in that thriving town.

THE "mining number" of the Los Angeles (Cal.) Times just received shows an inclination on the part of the pushing Californians to counteract Klondike fever by a vigorous representation of the richness of their native resources. We look for a like edition, presently, of the Dahlonega (Ga.) Nugget.

GOVERNOR BRADLEY has promptly authorized the payment of two thousand dollars to cover necessary expenses of the operations of the State Board of Health in preventing the introduction of yellow fever into Kentucky. There is provision for such action in emergency cases like the present in the General Statutes, and our State officials have been very prompt to provide against the scourge.

HON. H. R. BOURLAND and Judge John G. B. Hall locked horns in Earlington Saturday night, but preserved their equilibrium and maintained that they were friends, amidst some pretty sharp personalities that interspersed their speeches. They had a fair audience and the remarks of both were frequently applauded. Both made good speeches from their respective standpoints.

In his speech here on Saturday night, Judge Hall paid the Hopkins Fiscal Court a high compliment. He spoke of it in highest terms and said it was a good, clean court. One of the Magistrates was present, Mr. O. J. Farnsworth, the old veteran who has served faithfully and is standing for re-election from this, the Second district. The people of this district know that Judge Farnsworth has been throughly clean and honest in the administration of his office.

THE National Labor convention at Chicago knocked out a resolution approving the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 and introduced in its stead this clause: "We favor the issue of a stable legal tender by the Government direct and the establishment of Government savings banks."

The resolutions which were to have been voted upon finally yesterday contain this paragraph favorably reported by the Committee: "We admit the failure of the strike method."

The cancellation of the speaking appointments of Mr. C. C. Grassman in Hopkins county this week, on account of his illness at Madisonville, is a disappointment to a large number of our people who have heard very favorably of this bright and able candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney and want to hear him present his claims.

Mr. Grassman is in care of a physician and will doubtless be able to again prosecute his campaign in a few days.

This will be an experiment to test the capacity of the negro to manage his own affairs, and is after the idea of Booker T. Washington, the wisest Southern leader of the Negro race, who advocates and proves the theory that the road to advancement for his race is through manual training and industrial usefulness. He believes that when the negro, through his own thrift and energy, becomes a trained mechanician, artisan or farmer—a producer of wealth—and accumulates an independent living, that self-respect and the respect of other men will follow.

THE BEE is indebted to Miss Minnie Bourland for the excellent report of the proceedings of the Second District Teachers' Association, which appears in this issue. A perusal of this report will show that there are some few of our Earlington citizens who are actively interested in the school work—sufficiently so to spare a little time to encourage their children at school and the teachers who labor with them.

But there is good and sufficient excuse just now for the small attendance of fathers of Earlington children, in the fact that nearly all of them are called, by their first duty to their families, to labor in the mines and on the railroad and elsewhere, every day and constantly. In this is cause for congratulation; and if, under the circumstances, these parents see to it that their children attend school regularly, they cannot be accused of negligence of duty.

Yet the fact remains that we all are remiss in matters that pertain to the education of our children—and ourselves, for that matter. There is many a man and many a woman who look back with deepest regret at the poor school facilities which were offred in their childhood, and the poor use, maybe, that was made of those advantages offered. These, perhaps, yearn to see provided for their children the best possible advantages, and that all effort in that direction should receive the heartiest encouragement. But what are we doing to this end? Let every parent do all they can to encourage their children and our teachers.

A Card.

To the Voters of Hopkins County;

Having been tendered the nomination for the office of sheriff by acclamation at the hands of the Republican party, I desire to express my sincere thanks for the honor conferred. In accepting the nomination, I do so with a full realization of the responsibilities of the office and assure the people that I shall spare no pains to discharge its duties in a fair and impartial manner.

Respectfully,

GEO. R. LYNN.

Mooshiners in Muhlenberg.

(Greenville Banner.)

Whisky has been flowing too rapidly in Muhlenberg county for sometime, and Saturday, N. B. Chambers, deputy collector of internal revenue for the Owensboro division, and O. P. Deyer, of the Henderson division, made a raid into this district and succeeded in breaking up a moonshine still. They found the still and destroyed it. There were four large mash-tubs and an 800-gallon tank full of beer. There was a copper still of sixty gallons capacity and a new whisky worm. The officers failed to find anybody about the distillery but it was said to be the property of two farmers, Rogers and Bates, both men of good standing in Muhlenberg county. It was one of the largest stills which has been captured by the officers for quite a while. It has been in operation for some time, and the stock was handled through a blind tiger having government license, and the liquor was sold in jugs so as to conceal the fact that no tax had been paid.

Scrofula

Makes life misery to thousands of people. It manifests itself in many different ways, like goitre, swellings, running sores, boils, salt rheum and pimples and other eruptions. England, Lombard street, the devil, and old Plutocrat (whoever that may be) virtually owning this country, and dictated what laws should be passed, and would buy out Congress at the dead hours of midnight.

Well, Eliot has gone over to the enemy, and after blowing his horns at the Queen's jubilee, proceeds to dictate to the people of Webster county whom they shall vote for and tells them who is qualified to fill certain positions, etc. But we fear that, unless silver takes a powerful rise in the market, he will be a good fellow. His name is "George Towne's kind," it will be a long time before he can buy out Congress at the dead hour of midnight, ghosts or no ghosts, owls or no owls, lightning or no lightning.

Finn would only rest his throbings now against an feather for about six months, subscribe for THE BEE, read the market reports carefully, move back to Earlington or Providence, go to digging coal and voting the Republican ticket, he would, in the course of a year or two, know the difference between the Dingley bird and a Billy-goat, and would begin to recognize his friends.

POOLE.

Brother Bunch's meeting failed to materialize, and the "Lord ordered him else where."

Elder Bumpass preached his last sermon to his church here Sunday.

Elder Stone will begin the pastorate of the General Baptist church here next month.

The new graineries of the mill is completed.

M. B. Crowley's horse tore up that new buggy Sunday.

Sam Morrow, of Blackford, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Henderson, of this place.

T. T. Morris, candidate for county court, has been elected to the office Tuesday, making bands with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Morris this evening for the Tilson county where the candidates speak tomorrow; our boys report everything lovely so far.

ONTON.

News is scarce, but dust is plentiful.

Rev. C. C. Clark, who was appointed at the Kentucky Annual Conference, which was held at Pineville, Ky., is in our midst. He is presiding for us this week.

Rev. A. D. Foster, our former pastor, was mixing with his many friends, here Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Louis Whitten, of Earlington, paid a flying visit to our town Monday.

Miss Anna May Hardin, of Beech Grove, visited her brother Dr. W. M. Hardin last week.

Miss Minnie Green, who has been teaching at this place, has returned to her home at Providence. Miss Minnie is an excellent teacher.

Mr. David Coffman attended conference at Henderson last week.

Rev. E. D. Elliott spent two days at Henderson last week attending conference.

Mrs. Nola Hancock visited friends at Maysville Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Alice Hancock, who is an assistant teacher in the Beech Grove school is visiting friends and relatives here this week, the school being closed on account of cholera in the towns.

Candidates were shaking hands in our town last week; they were all smiles and of course all of them will be elected.

LOCAL NEWS.

As husbands you aren't quite all. O men! You really should be unies! Were you woning our sweethearts over again? They would think of you now as they thought of you then And joyously answer "Yes."

—L. A. W. Stulein

Esq. T. R. Cardwell is a candidate for the office of police judge for the city of Madisonville.

Dr. Geo. J. Gooch and family have removed to Empire, where the Doctor, as announced before in these columns, will practice his profession and make his home.

The Tahernale committee at Madisonville have gotten to the point of asking for bids for the erection of the proposed edifice. This looks like business. Elsewhere in THE BEE will be seen the advertisement for plans and specifications.

Considerable repairing is now being done by property owners in Earlington, preparatory for the winter. Leaky roofs only let in the sunshine now, but these may come a time when there will be something more moist to seek and for admission.

Mr. J. T. Barnett sold his fast horse, "Charlie Tandy" last week to Dr. Douglas C. Ramsey, of Mt. Vernon, Ind., for $150. The Doctor is a prominent physician in that section and is grand medical examiner for the A. O. U. W. in Indiana. He is reported to be very much pleased with his new purchase.

Some one has sprung a commun-drum at the expense of a Madisonville man, who is very rotund and bears the reputation of being an indefatigable money getter.

The question is asked:

"Why is — like the street sprinkler?"

Of course you give it up, and ask "why?"

"Because he's big and round and always after the dust."

Hon. A. K. Bradley Hurt.

Hon. A. K. Bradley, while walking on his back porch last Thursday night, became dizzy and fell. His thigh was broken and he was otherwise bruised. Mr. Bradley's health has not been very robust for some time past. He will probably be laid up for weeks.

Joint Debate.

Joint debate between Hon. J. G. Bailey and Hon. J. A. Parker will be held in this section of the state as follows:

Russellville, Oct. 4th.

Henderson, Oct. 5th.

Dixon, Oct. 6th.

Princeton, Oct. 7th.

Died.

On Friday, September 24, at her home in Hanson, Miss Edna Livingston, aged fourteen years, died of typhoid fever, after a short illness. Miss Livingston was a sister of Mrs. Geo. J. Gooch, and spent several weeks with her here this summer. Her friends here will be sorry to learn of her death.

Hon. W. D. Bynum.

Tomorrow Hon. W. D. Bynum, Chairman of the National Democratic party will address the citizens of Hopkins county at the court house in Madisonville. This has been announced before in these columns but a reminder is not out of order. This able gentleman of national reputation deserves a large and courteous hearing, even from those who differ with him in their views on political questions.

Mr. Grassham Sick.

Mr. C. C. Grassham, candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney, was forced to cancel all his speaking appointments in Hopkins county, as announced by postals generally distributed. He was taken sick at Madisonville on Monday and forced to retire to his room at the hotel. By advice of his physician, Dr. J. L. Dulin, all his engagements for this week are canceled.

This is a present disappointment, as many of our county people who have heard of Mr. Grassham's desire to hear him, but the hope is entertained that with good fortune the time will come pretty well when he will be able to make an active speaking canvass in this country.

The Woman's Friend.

"I know from my own experience that for ladies of a constipated habit there is nothing to supply the place of German Springerl, Mrs. J. P. Meunier, Springfield, Ohio.

"I have taken German Liver Powder for dyspepsia, and other liver trouble, and would not be without it." —Miss Jessie Green, Abilene, Tex.

"Friends advised me to try German Liver Powder for long standing liver trouble. I had it before I had taken one bottle. It did me more good than all medicine prescribed by physicians." —Mrs. John Campbell, Jeffersonville, Ind.

ROBBERY AT DAWSON.
Day Bros' Store Entered and Clothing Taken—Earlington's Marshal Called.

Sunday night the store house of Day Bros., at Dawson, Ky., was entered and clothing taken which probably amounted to considerable value. It was impossible to determine the value of the goods taken. One of the burglars seemed to have entered the store and passed out to the others a large quantity of clothing, which they proceeded to pick over and choose from. That they wanted them took; that they didn't want them left. They also took some pocket knives, but seemed to be poor judges of cutlery, taking cheap goods only.

Our City Marshall, Mr. Jno. T. Barnett, was telephoned for and went over Monday morning. Tracks of three men were discovered going to and coming from Dawson, which were supposed to be the tracks of the men who had committed the burglary. They went and came the same way and along the route thus indicated was found a pair of Day Bros. trousers stuck under a log or cross tie, which were identified by them. The Dawson officers are still at work on the case and it is understood that Day Bros. have offered a liberal reward for the capture and conviction of the burglars.

Eternal Vigilance.

Is the price of perfect health. Watch closely the first symptoms of impure blood. Care boils, pimples, humors and scrofula by taking Blood's Sarsaparilla. Drive away the pains and aches of rheumatism, maturing and stomach troubles, steady your nerves and overcome that tired feeling by taking the same great medicine.

Blood's Pills are the best family cathartic and liver tonic. Gentle, reliable, sure.

Maids and Bachelors Entertained.

A pleasant reception was given to the Bachelor Maids and Bachelors last Wednesday evening by Misses Minnie and Alice Bourland. A goodly number of the Bachelors were present.

The principal feature of entertainment for the evening was a drawing contest, which created a great deal of fun and laughter.

The Bachelors proved themselves superior to the Maids as artists. Mr. Jerrold Jonson captured the first Walter McGary the booby prize. The latter appreciated his prize so highly that he requested then and there that at his death, his box (which, by the way, served him in good stead later in the evening) should be buried with him.

Men went from the mines, the town, the railroad, the farms, until not less the 200 or 250 were strung out along the course of the advancing fire line. Fences were torn away, dead trees and stumps scraped around and men left on guard at doubtful points of vantage. The work was made thorough by scraping a path through the woods, from a lane in the Buckner farm, well on if not quite to the Hopkinsville road. The leaves were fired as rapidly as the path was made—along its edge—and this new fire started back to clear the way to the main body of the fire and stop its progress. This was done successfully and in a very short while.

Within an hour and a half after the alarm was sounded the bulk of the men were on their way back to town, leaving Harry Corey and his force in charge with the fire under control.

Rowland Rich came near being struck by a burning chunk which fell from the top of an apparently green tree under which he was working. It was a good big chunk plentilly supplied with fire, and would have made an impression, but it missed him by a safe distance—about six inches.

Mike Long was not the only one whose manly eyes were filled with tears at the sight—or perhaps the lack of sight. But even he cheered up when he thought what a clear shooting ground for quails would be left by the fire. And Frank Arnold, too, looked happy at the prospect of using a pump gun on something animate in a open open space where walls and things could not intervene.

The railroad boys ran a special out from one of the livery stables but it cannot be proven that they repaid anything.

This is only one of the many fires that have been turned back and extinguished hereabouts in the past ten days. But this one had gained much greater headway. It burned from Grapevine and spread over the Buckner place.

Beware of Ointments for Cancer that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do often far exceeds the good they can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by Frank J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, contains no mercury and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials are given by Dr. George W. Martin, E. D. Smith, Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. Fifty cents and $1.00 at St. Bernard Drug Store.

Regular size 50 cents and $1.00.

Welcomeed by the Brass Band.

Mr. John B. Atkinson, President of the St. Bernard Coal Company, who has been to Nova Scotia examining coal properties for the Dominion Coal Company, returned last Friday night, bringing with him his wife and Mrs. Paul M. Moore and son John, who have spent the past two months at the seashore and visiting relatives in New Jersey and Philadelphia. He was met at the station at 11 o'clock by the boys of the "St. Bernard Brass Band" who welcomed him home with a flourish of trumpets.

FARM AND FOREST FIRE.
Buckner's Farm Near Earlington Burned, Threatening all the Surrounding Property.

TWO HUNDRED MEN LEAD A HAND
Meadow, Hay Barn and Other Property of St. Bernard Coal Company Seriously Threatened.

Fire swept a part of the Buckner's farm just east of this place Monday, doing considerable damage to fences and young timber, threatening corn, which stood shocked in the field, roaring through the underbrush in the timbered tract. There was imminent danger of its further spread but prompt work of some two hundred willing men stopped its progress and turned it back upon itself.

While many people of Earlington were eating dinner, the distress whistle at the air compressing plant of the St. Bernard Coal Company sounded the alarm of fire, and the news quickly spread that the Buckner farm, adjoining the property of that company was burning and the Mammoth Cave, to the interest of the subject.

Fire in the Arboretum.

One day last week a spark from a locomotive set fire to the grass along the track next to the Arboretum at the Southern edge of town. The fire spread rapidly into the enclosure and two or three choice young trees that helped to make up the large collection there, were ruined before the flames could be checked. Mr. W. A. Toombs sped away on his wheel and with some assistance succeeded by hard work in getting the fire under control. A sweeping fire in the Arboretum would be disastrous to many young trees that have cost much time and labor in collecting, and would seriously injure this large collection of trees of great variety, which is one of perhaps only two Arboreta in the State of Kentucky.

At noon Tuesday fire was again discovered in the Arboretum. A few men got on the ground promptly and stopped its spread in short order. The conditions were just right for rapid burning and the whole enclosure would have been swept, but for quick work with brush and shovel. No damage was done. There was some fire beyond, along the railroad, but of little consequence.

Delightful Concert.

The concert at the Parochial School Hall Thursday evening proved, as THE BEE predicted, to be "specially attractive." It was delightful. The hall was filled, only a limited number of tickets having been issued so that there would be no overcrowding, but it was filled full and a few chairs had to be brought in.

Mr. W. H. Collins, of Chicago, who entertained the audience, proved himself a most delightful ballad singer and his Irish and Negro dialect songs, which largely predominated, were rendered with great zest. His dialect was fine, enunciation clear, and he was altogether pleasing. Mr. Collins sang for the pleasure of his audience and said it was a great pleasure to him to give them pleasure. He rendered more than thirty numbers with very little rest, some two or three of which numbers were operatic and the rest humorous and pathetic.

The first number showed the power and possibilities of his voice, ending on B flat.

Among the numbers that were best received were "Songs My Mammy Sung," which introduced the Irish lullaby's as rendered both by the "mammy" and the "daddy," and was very rich; the pathetic "Story of an Engineer," which told how the red and the green lights were left with the engineer's wife to be used as signals to him to tell him, as he flew on his engine, whether their child was dead or better, and how the green was shown; "The Laughing Song," to the accompaniment of which every nerve and fiber of the singer shook with feigned laughter, which, communicated to his hearers, became unfeigned and shook them likewise. "My Angel" was perhaps the favorite of the Negro songs. The young Negro brothers, Pete's sons, sang two duets in the testing spells.

The concert was repeated by request on Friday night and the program for that evening was largely a request program.
